

Using Performance Measurement to Drive Health System Improvement

Thursday March 25, 2010 (9:00 am – 3:30 pm)
St. Andrew's Club & Conference Centre
150 King Street West, Sun Life Building 27th floor

Agenda

- 08:30 Continental Breakfast and Registration
- 09:00 Welcome & Opening Remarks: Walter Wodchis, HSPRN Co-Lead
- 09:15 Speaker 1: Niek Klazinga, Healthcare Quality Indicators Project OECD
OECD's Health Care Quality Indicator Project: Methodological and Policy Challenges
- 10:00 Speaker 2: Jeremy Veillard, Health Policy and Equity World Health Organization
WHO Country Health System Performance Assessments in the Context of Changing Health Needs
- 10:45 Break
- 11:15 Speaker 3: François Champagne, Health Administration University of Montreal
A Comprehensive and Integrated Framework for Performance Assessment: The EGIPSS Model
- 12:00 Discussion: Geoffrey Anderson, HPME University of Toronto
- 12:30 Lunch
- 01:30 Speaker 4: Anna Koné, Public Health University of Montreal
Factorial Validation of a Balanced-scorecard Framework for Measuring Health System Performance
- 02:00 Speaker 5: Sara Allin, HPME University of Toronto
A Common Framework for Health System Performance
- 02:30 Speaker 7: Walter Wodchis, HPME University of Toronto
Linking Interventions with Health System Performance Improvement
- 03:00 Conference Summary and Closing Remarks: Louise Lemieux-Charles, HPME Chair

HSPRN is a multi university and institution collaborative network supported by the Ontario Ministry of Health and Long Term Care www.hsprn.ca